ND Attorney General Knoephla Soup Contest

North Dakota Attorney General Drew Wrigley wants to know who has the best knoephla soup in all of North Dakota! The contest winner will be announced at an official Attorney General's Press Conference (and possibly named in Attorney General's Opinion) – a first in North Dakota history!

If you think your soup has what it takes, bring your sample (enough for several samples) in a disposable container to the North Dakota Attorney General's Office on the first floor of the State Capitol in Bismarck, Monday, October 17th.

For security purposes, all contestants are subject to security search at Capitol Visitor's Entrance (south side). Each contestant must sample their soup along with Attorney General and staff on premises.

Two sampling time-slots are available: 1:30 PM & 3:00 PM.

Contest open to North Dakota residents only.
